Miss Elizabeth Webb

To our beloved counselor, friend, and teacher, Miss Elizabeth Webb, who is responsible for the success and enjoyment we have experienced through the past three years, we, the class of 1945, dedicate this thirty-fifth volume of THE MARSHALLITE

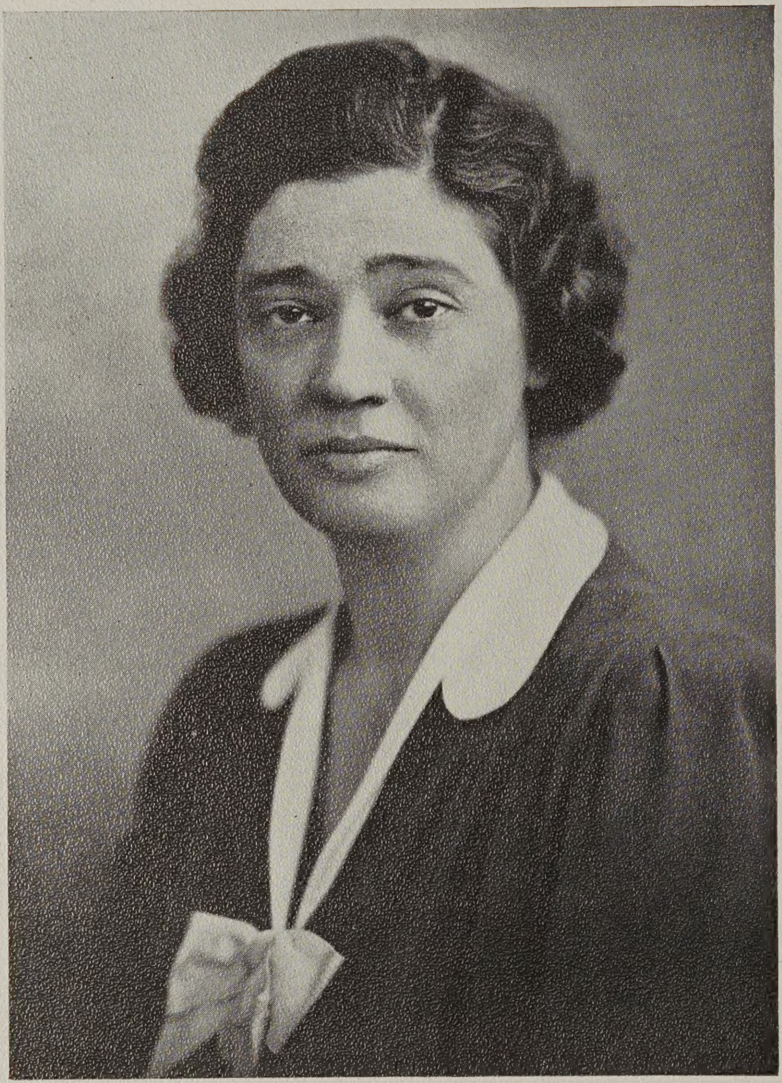
PROPERTY OF
THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA

FOREWORD: Now that the most disastrous conflict in the history of the modern world is drawing to a close, we pause a moment to reflect upon the war and its meaning to our nation. Our part in this fight has been for the purpose of peace—in truth, peace has really been a tradition of our nation.

Our forefathers left their homes in Europe to settle in this new world so they could live their lives and worship as they desired, in peace. The Revolutionary War was fought for the same distinct purpose, freedom and peace. All the wars we have had forced upon us from time to time have been waged against tyranny, for the desire to live freely and peaceably, and to give our neighbors that same privilege.

We are a peace-loving country. Since this is true, the staff of this, the thirty-fifth MARSHALLITE, feel that it is fitting to have as our theme,

Peace— Tradition of America



Wilhelmina Wright

Miss Wilhelmina Wright

We, the class of 1945, wish to express our sincere gratitude to our friend and adviser, Miss Wilhelmina Wright, for her perseverance in making THE MARSHALLITE a success. She has worked untiringly under extreme difficulties to make this publication possible. We thank her

Mr. James Coleman Harwood

Principal

He looks upon all beauty of the world
  And chooses with a classic skill the Truth,
Then lending out his mind and heart and soul,
  He shares his dearest treasures, all, with Youth.

Peace—Tradition of America

In the days of the Puritan forefathers, reverence and quiet content pervaded the home when the family gathered at the table for repast . . . it is for this same peaceful atmosphere that America fights the great War of today.

Our Story — in

Creative Writing Class

The Supersnooper

IN JOHN MARSHALL, as in practically all high schools, English is the only subject required every term. The classes alternately emphasize composition and literature. Here we offer some pictures showing various English classes. One is studying Shakespeare, made more realistic by the use of a Shakespearean stage made by one of the students, and by use of recordings of some of the best Shakespearean actors and actresses.

Then there is a picture of the class in creative writing, which, as its name implies, is a class for those who show ability in this field. Here a goodly number of The Record Staff create the stories and poems that are enjoyed by the readers of our literary magazine.

The journalism class is open only to students who, by virtue of their better work in lower English, receive invitations. Those who wish to work on The Monocle, the school newspaper, get their training here, and a great number of these former students have entered newspaper work because they liked the taste they received in the journalism class.

The class in drama is for public speaking, to students who like drama. They study plays and do a great deal of acting. This training gives them poise and grace, and teaches them about the theatre, from ancient times up to the modern stage.

Keeping up with the world

The History Department of John Marshall not only teaches its pupils facts of the past, but by the use of maps and current event papers they can follow history-making events of the present.

The students, either by the use of outlined or their own hand-drawn maps, learn boundaries, the positions of the warring armies, and vital places all over the world.

The Mathematics Department does not just teach boys and girls how to solve necessary problems by algebra and geometry, but it also paves the way for architects by teaching the use of geometric instruments and figures. It aims to teach students how to think.

The French and Spanish classes and clubs give the modern language students the opportunity to hear the languages put into use. This year they have had the chance to see the French movie, "Katia," and the Spanish movie, "Carmen la de Triana."

Modern language classes sponsor a banquet each year. This year Madame Benaceraf spoke in French and Senor Ghigo spoke in Spanish.

Among the many clubs at John Marshall there is the Forum Club which discusses weekly current events. This year they broadcast over the R. P. S. Spotlight a panel discussion of Compulsory Military Service.

Fragile

For many years John Marshall has given a course in Distributive Trades, in which the students take two regular school classes plus a course in salesmanship in the morning, and work in the various local stores in the afternoon under the supervision of the store managers and the salesmanship teacher. The pictures here show girls selling in a local ten-cent store, in a grocery store, and a boy wrapping packages in one of our leading department stores. This course is a splendid one for students who wish to make salesmanship their career, since, when they are graduated, they will have already had invaluable experience, and also good business contacts.

The classes in machine shop and electric shop prove especially beneficial to boys interested in mechanics. They also study in the morning and have their practice work in the afternoon also. These classes are quite beneficial not only to the students, but also to the employers during this time of shortage of help. The students earn while they learn. The classes in mechanical drawing illustrated here are taken in the trade courses if they are desired.

Here at John Marshall there are offered one-year courses in biology, chemistry, and physics. Now these courses in science are not compulsory, but without them your studies in college are made harder. These courses are becoming more and more necessary in view of the complex and scientific world in which we live. Aside from being helpful, these studies are among the most interesting given at John Marshall and they are among the most enjoyable. There is something about the sciences that intrigues most people and therefore combines work with pleasure.

We have here at John Marshall courses offered in bookkeeping. These classes are always full, as bookkeeping is a profession that is rapidly becoming one of the most important in this world of facts and figures.

On this page we give you a glimpse into our scientific life.

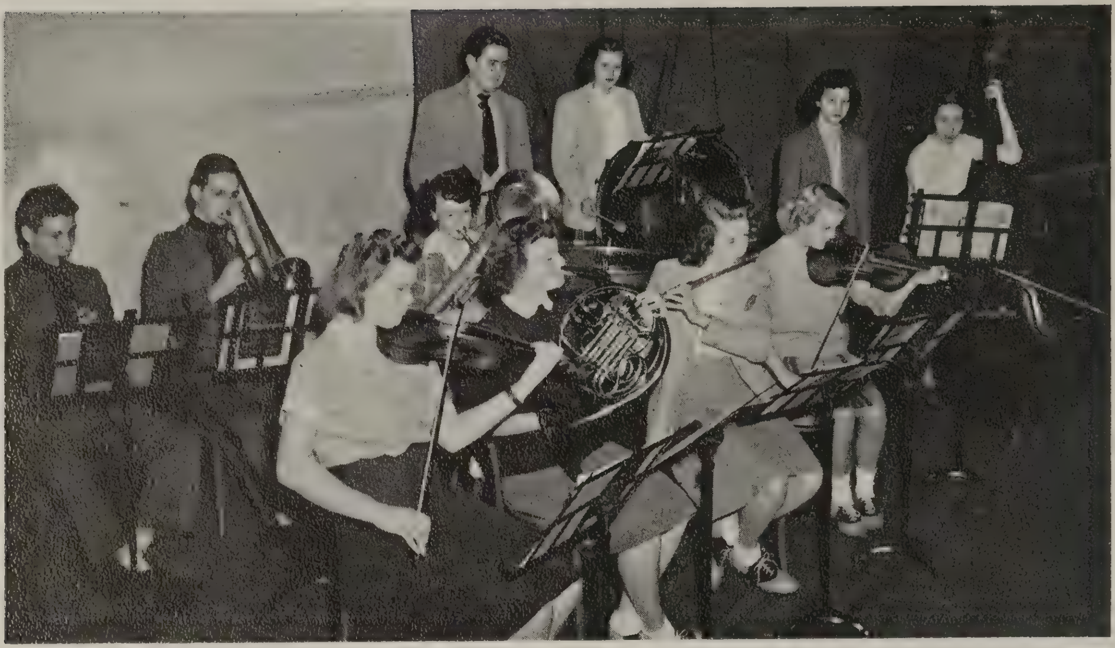
"Music hath charms"



Nothing missing but the voice

John Marshall High School offers classes in music. Our school orchestra takes part in a great many activities. These include the annual operettas for which they furnish the music. We are also proud of the vocal classes. They make the choirs and choruses possible.

The vocal and instrumental classes often perform at civic enterprises, for the Music Club of the city, for the Air Base Hospital, and McGuire Hospital for injured soldiers, and do their part also in assembly programs.

The art classes make colorful posters and bulletins on timely events. The members of these classes often make the cuts for our various publications. They also obtain a valuable knowledge for making vases and portraits. Molding clay is another skill that they learn.

What's cooking?

On this page are represented physical education, and cooking and sewing, important classes for any school to have included in its curriculum. The girls have regular physical ed, take part in hockey, basketball, softball, tennis, bowling, volley ball, and track. To the boys is offered physical ed, football, basketball, baseball, track, and wrestling.

In home economics, cooking gives training in nutrition, diet, food values, and food preparation, as well as lessons in serving and planning meals. The students often enjoy meals cooked and served by themselves. Quite often they invite guests, and thereby learn the niceties of entertaining. Sewing gives one training in making and caring for one's personal clothes as well as a chance for using their course as a basis for a career. The students are instructed in economical buying of material, in designing and making clothes suitable for all occasions. Colors and types of fabrics are studied. At fashion shows given by the students, the girls display their handiwork.

Our ups and downs

Here are represented some of the extra departments John Marshall has, not academic, but quite essential.

Guidance is most important. Students need someone with whom to discuss their problems, and teachers often need help, too, in dealing with certain situations. The guidance teacher solves the problem. She helps direct college material to a suitable college, the student who wishes a job to an employer, gives helpful information about courses to prospective students, and is busy morning, noon, and night, visiting homes and being the go-between.

Richmond furnishes books to its students—therefore, our book room, headed by Mr. Lux. He issues books to teachers to be given out, sees to reordering, mending, and rebinding. He is the man to see if you lose your book and wish to buy a new one to replace it.

For students whose eyes are bad, we have a sight conservation class, held by Mrs. Burruss. She mothers her crew, helps them read, types their tests in large type, and gives them all the help and guidance she can.

Mrs. Skipwith directs our two cafeterias, one for the students and one for the teachers. They are well equipped with everything, including good food.

Our nurse, Miss Michaux, attends to the health of John Marshall students. She is the person who says whether you are sick enough to go home and whether you are all right to return to school, who keeps the health cards, and helps the school physician and dentist to contact those who are in need of attention.

Honor Society initiates

John Marshall has a number of honorary societies. Among these is the John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society. This organization participates in coaching pupils who are behind in their school work. Chosen for their leadership, scholarship, service, and character, the members are an asset to John Marshall.

The Honor Society also takes part in many social activities. This group is shown enjoying a delightful picnic.

The Richmond Public School Spotlight, a program over WRVA started here by Miss Paulette Long, has added a new type of program to our assemblies. These broadcasts are both interesting and educational and tend to teach the students as well as the general public the activities of the school.

To help with cheering at the games, we choose by vote each year our cheer leaders. They help increase our school spirit, practice cheers with the student body, and lead us at all our games.

The Junior Red Cross has varied and important duties, among them distributing Christmas boxes to the disabled war veterans. We illustrate them doing up the packages in a truly Christmas style.

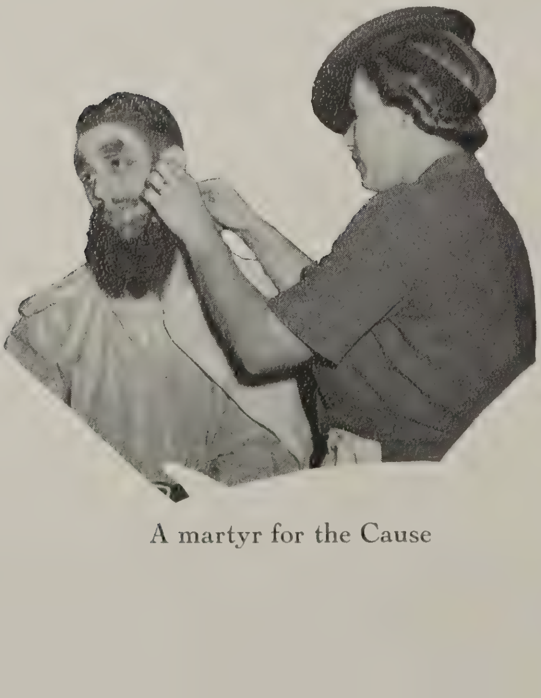
The Red Mill

Wheeeewhoo!



A martyr for the Cause

Each year John Marshall has one main event in the form of an opera or play, alternately, to display the great talent of which our school has always been proud. This year, a musical comedy, "The Red Mill," was presented. It was given two nights, March 15 and 16, and both nights a huge crowd was entertained. It contained humor and also had an interesting story with colorful costumes and scenery.

This quaint opera takes place in a little Dutch village. It is a story of Gretchen, the burgomaster's daughter, who was in love with Heindrich van Daum and was engaged to marry the Governor of Zealand. Two Americans, however, come over and get into all sorts of trouble in the attempt to help Gretchen elope with Heindrich. Instead of eloping, Gretchen's aunt poses as Gretchen and marries the Governor, and everyone is happy.

This presentation was made possible only through the untiring efforts of the choir, chorus, orchestra, drama classes, art classes, sewing classes, and electric classes and their directors.

The music by Victor Herbert was both appealing and familiar. Practice under the direction of Mr. Troxell and Captain Donohue began in the fall and continued until the performance.

The credit for the dances and gestures goes to Miss Peple. These were original and greatly added to the program. She also directed the girls in making up the cast, and held a practice to do this. Regular grease paint was used and also eye make-up. Volunteers from drama classes did this very well.

The art classes of Miss Cunningham made the attractive posters which were placed around the school for advertisement. They made the lovely scenery also, taking long hours of their time, to be rewarded only by its beauty and likeness to a real Dutch village.

The electric classes aided in effective lighting with colored lights, shifting of scenery and sound effects.

The costumes came from New York and the sewing classes altered and pressed them.

A small model of the stage was made first and then the actual stage made like the small one. The miniature was later placed in the glass case outside the library for all to see.

We are all very proud of the fine performance.

Entertaining the boys

In May, 1944, some of the boys and girls from Mr. Troxell's music classes formed the G. I. Josephines and Stage Door Commandos. Once a week they would meet at the different members' homes to rehearse.

This organization, of about twenty members at first, was formed for the purpose of entertaining, just once, the returning war casualties at McGuire General Hospital. They were genuinely appreciated by all the men, so it was arranged for them to entertain there weekly.

Membership has increased to approximately thirty-five; and now they also entertain at the Richmond Army Air Base Hospital every other Thursday during the school term, and go only every third Wednesday to McGuire Hospital. Lois Peace accompanies the group and plans and directs the programs. Virginia Gearheart is president and announcer. Shirley McGee is vocal director and James Odom directs the boys' group.

Marshallites on every front

THE day of June 12, 1945, graduation day, will always remain with us as one of the greatest days of our lives. But, although this day was a happy one for us, it was also one of the saddest days we have experienced. It meant parting with our friends and teachers we hold so dear. These past three years have been filled with joy, work, play, friendship, and heartaches, and all of us hold many precious memories which can never be taken from us.

Looking back, we remember that during our sophomore year our class was led by Billy Mayo, president; Jimmy Keeton, vice-president; Martha Ann White, treasurer, May Lee Yook, secretary; Kathleen Hairfield, historian, and Grayson Murphy, reporter.

Then came our junior year, and we elected as our president Charles Nuckols, and Miriam Clark, as vice-president, was chosen to assist him. Shirley Lett was elected as secretary and treasurer and Jean Holmes as historian and reporter.

Everyone turned out for the skating party which was the last social function of our junior class. We were thrilled with the thoughts of becoming seniors.

Arriving back at school after a long summer's vacation, we were ready to start out as seniors in full swing.

Popular Robert (Corky) Miller was elected president of the senior class and Shirley McGee, vice-president. Dewey Lovelace was elected second vice-president. Shirley Lett was elected into the office she held in her junior year, secretary and treasurer, and Lorraine Legge was chosen to assist her with the same title. Jean Holmes was elected historian and reporter, the same office she held in her junior year.

We were very proud to have Miss Elizabeth Webb as our sponsor. She has led us through each term we have been in John Marshall, and her faithful leadership has helped to make our class a great success.

To start the "joys of a senior" off with a bang, we had a dance on November 10. Sophomores and juniors were invited to join us in the fun. The Wythe Gym was crowded with happy people, and while dancing to the music of a nickelodian, the lights were dimmed. Charlie Nuckols, who was president of our junior class last year, was always busy changing records and at the same time trying to please everyone. Interest was aroused by many different contests and prizes. Odie Stone and Joyce Gammon came in first place for the best jitterbugs, and Calvin Jenkins and Dorothy Haynes were chosen as the "lucky couple." As we looked around, we saw Nan Dean and Pierce Wood walking off the floor with suckers, which they won in the Spot Contest. Pictures were taken, and everyone turned on their sweetest smile and rushed to get in front of the camera. Mr. Harwood, Sr., and Miss Webb were among our guests.

Next on our list of entertainment came a skating party at the Cavalier Arena, on Tuesday, December 5, 1944, after school. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors sponsored it. Peppy little Julia Noble, dressed in a black skating dress, entertained the Marshallites with a special skate. Pictures were taken of the three classes. Last, but not least, everyone participated in the Grand March.

The popularity contest was next on the senior calendar. This term it was decided only to have it consist of the February graduating class. Frank Owen, who was chosen best-looking boy of the junior class, once again was elected by the seniors to that title. Myra Moss, a charming little blonde, was chosen best-looking girl. Bill Smith and Frances Johnson came in first place for best dressed. There was no doubt in our minds as to who should get the title of biggest flirt. Of course, they are Cary Davis and Mary King. Tall, good-looking Hugh Ragland was selected as the best cadet. The title of most intelligent was bestowed upon Jack Mallory and Florine Hunt, while Billy May and Bettye Barfoot were chosen as the most popular seniors. The athletic ability was attributed to Garfield Salyers and Dallis Lindsey, and May Lee Yook and Elmer Chandler were chosen as best-all-around. Cutest boy and girl were Ed Talley and Doris Elliott, and most talkative were Allen Jeter and Pearl Wagner. Bernard Atchinson and Phyllis Evans were elected best dancers.

In February the representatives were elected again, and a membership drive was held for a week. The same officers continued their leadership.

A high senior "Who's Who" contest started the ball rolling once more. George McKinney, president of the John Marshall Student Association, and Miriam Clark, vice-president, were chosen as the most popular seniors. Peggy Hassell and Carrol Alley came in first place as most intelligent. Shirley Roberts, who was selected the cutest junior, was honored with the title of best-looking girl, and Stuart Holmes was chosen best-looking boy. Robert Dickens and Betty Jennings boast the title of cutest boy and girl, and Dan Rowe and Shirley McGee were the best-all-around seniors. Most athletic was Gerard Bradley, and the title of biggest flirt was bestowed upon Billy Luck and Hester Ann Black. Jimmy Lumpkin was chosen best cadet. As most talkative boy and girl we chose Dewey Lovelace and Barbara Watts, and best dancers, Otis Stone and Joyce Gammon. Ray Dogget and Martha Ann White were chosen as best-dressed boy and girl.

The next social function of the senior class was a dance which was held on Friday, April 13, shortly after our Easter holidays. All dressed in Easter frocks and sport clothes, Marshallites crowded into the Wythe Gym. Shirley McGee offered us a special treat by singing some of the latest songs. The music was furnished by a six-piece orchestra.

It is the usual custom of the senior class to give a portrait to our school as a parting gift. This year we presented the portrait of Merriwether Lewis, which will be placed by the one of George Rogers Clark.

We want to thank our sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Webb, for her excellent leadership. We have had the success that has befallen us only on account of her guidance and inspiration. She has helped us in our every undertaking, has put and kept us on the right track, and we greatly appreciate her interest in us. Thank you, Miss Webb.

And now, as we bid farewell to our high school days, we wish to first thank our principal and our teachers for their friendship and guidance which has helped to make our high school days at dear old John Marshall ones worth remembering and cherishing the rest of our lives.

JUNIOR HISTORY

To a really swell guy!
Shirley Sue
Stitt

TUTTLE, WILLIAMS, WILSON, MISS KEENE, GREEN

IS IT possible that we juniors are the same timid, bewildered little sophomores of last year? Although we did not form a sophomore class, we joined in all school activities, and we really learned a great deal in our first year at John Marshall.

Soon after the fall term began in our junior year, we organized the class under the leadership of Miss Thelma Keene, our sponsor. We chose that vivacious junior, Janet Wilson, as president. To assist her we elected Bob Tuttle, vice-president; June Williamson, secretary; and Shirley Green, treasurer. Nancy Black was chosen later in the term to serve as class historian.

After an intensive membership campaign, an exciting schedule of activities was announced. Every member was thrilled when the handbooks, listing the program for the fall term, were given out.

The first event on our schedule occurred during American Education Week when a reception for the parents of the juniors was held in our sponsor's room after the regular junior assembly. Here the mothers enjoyed meeting the class officers and guests and discussing class activities while refreshments were served.

On November 16, the jolly juniors gathered for an afternoon of fun. At this time a one-act play, "Another Beginning," was presented. As the lights were lowered, the curtains parted and we knew we were to enjoy seeing ourselves as others see us, for the play showed the "trials and tribulations" in the romance of a high school girl and boy.

Our next social event was our fall dance, which took place the night of November 24 in the Wythe Gym. After singing our national anthem, everyone seemed to be everywhere at once, jiving and waltzing to the music of Olley Harris's orchestra. Keith Wilkinson served as master of ceremonies. June Carter, one of our juniors who appears on many radio programs over local stations, sang several numbers. Another junior, Clyde England, made many a heart flutter when he sang. Several tap numbers were danced by Blanche Smith. All in all, it was a memorable evening.

We will never forget the cold morning in December when we celebrated Mr. Harwood's birthday. After singing "Happy Birthday to You," we presented him with our gift, "The World of Washington Irving."

Of course, we shall always remember the afternoon at the Cavalier Arena when we joined the seniors and sophomores in a skating party. Many happy friendships were begun that afternoon as we seemed to float on air around the rink.

After school, December 14, our sponsor gave a Christmas party for the officers and home room representatives, who had worked so faithfully during the term. Singing carols, eating cakes, drinking punch, munching on candy, peanuts, and cookies, we soon realized the afternoon had passed all too quickly.

In February we lost many of our members who had become seniors. These we missed, but we gained many new members who had become juniors.

Again plans for a new term were made and a membership drive was immediately begun. Activities were planned and committees were appointed.

Again the handbooks made a stir when they were issued, for included were the names of those in our "Who's Who." This contest created great excitement and everyone eagerly awaited the results of the voting. The returns revealed Billy Ward and Mary Ann Weisiger

It's cold, but we must see the cadets to be the best-looking boy and girl; Teddy Carr and Barbara Rackley, the cutest boy and girl; Bena Rowe, the best cadet; Stuart Garbett and Jean Pitts, the most athletic boy and girl. Kerry McBroom and Dolly Shoemaker were chosen as the boy and girl with the best personality, while Billy Ashley and Peggy Evans shared honors as the best dancers. Helen Norris and Bob Tuttle were declared the most popular girl and boy. The two chosen as the best dressed boy and girl in the class were Teddy Lowry and Virginia Lee Purdy. George Robinson and Dolores Palmore, two honor roll pupils, were named as the most intelligent boy and girl. We considered Betty Whitworth and Donald Harding the most talented girl and boy in the class. The honor of being chosen as the best-all-around boy and girl went to Stuart Kersey and June Boyd. After the announcements of these winners, we looked forward to seeing them in a special feature in the spring junior prom.

Finally May 4 really dawned. That night we gathered in the Wythe Gym under the colored lights to dance to the music of Ben Butler's orchestra. We enjoyed many special features, and we were not disappointed in the Who's Who stunt. The evening was a great success.

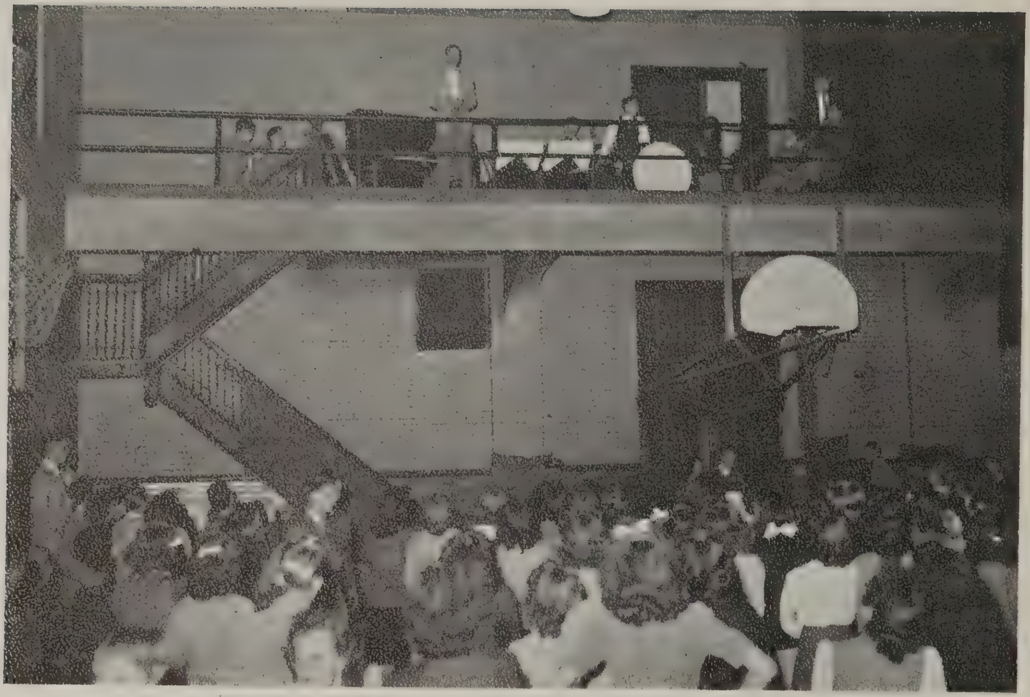
Many of our activities were not of a social nature. We encouraged the sale of War Stamps and Bonds throughout the year, but we selected April 16 as a special day on which every junior present was to buy at least one stamp.

On May 9 we presented a program, "Say It with

Jeanne Singleton

When do we start?

Sylvan S. Fox Jr.



Let's swoon

Flowers," in our regular junior assembly. After a summary of our year's work was given by our officers, we paid tribute to our teachers and principal for their patience, understanding, and guidance during the year. To their surprise, May baskets, attractively filled with flowers, were presented to them, for we had been unable to find words to express our appreciation adequately.

To our splendid sponsor, Miss Keene, we wish not only to give a big May basket, but in our sincerest way, to express our appreciation for all her help and kindness to us during this year. Without her our junior year could not have been the success we feel it has been. We thank you, Miss Keene.

It would be impossible to enumerate all the good times we have had planning and participating in our major activities. The committee meetings, the officers' councils, the representatives' Tuesday sessions, and other gatherings are among those we shall always remember.

We have formed many lasting friendships this year, and we are looking forward to that day in September when we return to John Marshall as seniors.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

October, 1944—Election of Class Officers

This day was an exciting day in the history of our sophomore class. Everyone was running around with questioning expressions on their faces as they wondered who would win in the voting finals. At last the announcement came. Yes, it was Bill Norris who won as president. He had formerly served as secretary of his class at Chandler Junior High School. Mary Margaret Solari ran against him. The voting was very exciting for the office of vice-president, as Kitty Jones and Bette Davis ran neck-and-neck. However, Kitty took the lead and came out the winner. Nell McGehee was chosen secretary of the sophomore class. Her running mate for this office was Jean Pruett. After the election you saw everyone with a relieved countenance, as they had not been called upon to make "many" campaign speeches.

November, 1944—The Skating Party

The seniors invited the juniors and sophomores to a thrilling party on this unforgettable day. We all met on street cars and buses and went to the Cavalier Arena for quite a jolly time. George Krimm (feet, size 14) spent most of his time trying to get fitted in a pair of skates. Our class was largely represented, having the largest attendance of any of the three classes. Everyone seemed to have a grand time and went away smiling.

December, 1944—The Christmas Dance

The highlight of all of our fall activities was our Christmas Dance, which took place on December 7. I bet you didn't know that there were two Santa Clauses! Now, did you? Well, here is how it happened. Robert Gallier was selected to be our first Santa, and everyone must agree that Robert would have been a grand "stand-in" for Old Nick. However, Santa was too large for his costume, and Faris Fahed had to substitute for him. In his bright red pack, Santa brought gifts to the winners of our popularity contest which had been conducted earlier in the week in the home rooms. Maxine Harris won as the prettiest girl; Bette Davis came out on top as our most intellectual girl; Joyce Sandieson was the sophomores' choice as the most popular girl. Last, but not least, is the athletic type, and Iris Verelle was named as the girl best representing this field. The most popular boy was Sam Ballas; the most handsome boy in the class was none other than Gene Hancock; and our choice of an intellectual boy was Fletcher Owens; the most athletic boy was Jack Eads. I think everyone enjoyed the dance thoroughly and went away with a wide grin on his face.

February, 1945—Officers

We retained our officers and had a membership drive which was very successful.

March, 1945—Skating Party

The sophomores skated at the Cavalier Arena from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. on March 24. Some were so anxious to be on time that they apparently brought their lunch—consisting of shoe-string French fried potatoes, which were spilt. One sophomore put on a "one-man" act by doing an excellent clean-up job on skates.

April 20, 1945—Our Spring Dance

What fun we had at our spring dance! Cecelia Perkins, Eddie Minson, Helen Goin, Freida Hubbard, and Agnes Burrow made favors which carried numbers for the selection of the winners of the door prizes. Elizabeth Jennette was chosen as queen of the dance, and Maxine Harris and Ellen Seay served as her maids of honor. These girls had received the most votes in conjunction with the purchase of war stamps and bonds on the preceding Monday. Olie Harris and Philip Johnson helped to provide the music. Corine Keiger and Stuart Thorpe sang "My Dreams Are Getting Better All the Time," accompanied by Ruth Gibson. We are proud of these sophomores! Barbara Moore was chairman of our poster committee and did a splendid job. Thanks, Barbara.

We want here to take this opportunity to thank our splendid sponsor, Miss Hulcher, for her kind assistance and her genuine interest in our every venture, whether scholastic or social. She has given us a great deal of help and we do sincerely appreciate her guidance. We earnestly hope that we may be fortunate enough to keep her as our adviser and friend all through our high school days. Then we feel we may be confident that, with Miss Hulcher as leader, we cannot fail.

Now we go into our final tests with vim and vigor to get them behind us, all well done, so we can be full-fledged juniors. Our sophomore year is slowly drawing to a close.

With a hope in our minds that we will have success in our junior and senior classes, we bid farewell to our sophomore days.

Nell McGehee, Secretary.

John Marshall Student Association

GEORGE MCKINNEY	President
MIRIAM CLARK	Vice-President
ANN HASKER	Secretary
DICK HARRIS	Treasurer
MISS AUERBACH	Adviser

OUR John Marshall Student Association is headed by pupils selected for their efficiency and dependability. Elections are held each spring, at which time the school chooses its officers for the following term. The executive committee assembles weekly, and once a month there is a meeting to which each home room sends a representative. Through these representatives every student has a voice in his government.

During the past year our chief aim has been to promote the sale of war stamps and bonds. As we are working for the "Schools at War" Flag, which is awarded for ninety per cent participation in the purchase of stamps and bonds, we have tried to emphasize the number of pupils buying as well as the amount bought. Last term the sales amounted to $66.877.95. To assist us in our campaign the art department designs posters displaying its importance. Thermometers in the halls keep a record of our progress, and competition is encouraged among home rooms by posting the amount purchased by each room. The Association also sponsors and presents assembly programs on this subject.

With the exception of a Christmas party given us by our sponsor and a picnic in the spring, we have relinquished all social activities for the duration of the war and have emphasized the privileges and responsibilities of a citizen in a democracy.

National Honor Society

THE John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society, under the sponsorship of Miss Williams, began its work for the term of 1944 on September 10. Installed as officers were Kathryn Allen, president; Lois Peace, vice-president; Hazel Jennings, secretary; and Mae Lee Yook, treasurer. To start the year right, a picnic was given at Bryan Park where surprising appetites were displayed. Later those low seniors who had an average of eighty-seven and one-half per cent and were otherwise qualified, twenty-six in number, were initiated and received into the organization.

At Christmas the annual banquet was given. This is the time when members, old and new, regardless of age or position, join to renew old acquaintance and make new friends. This year it was held in the nurses' home of Stuart Circle Hospital. The banquet hall had been decorated with the Honor Society blue and gold and a Christmas tree dressed as symbolic of the season. Several toasts were given, and Lois Peace entertained with some selections at the piano.

Pictures of the society were taken for the annual and the scrapbook. With the February graduation in mind, new officers were elected. For the position of president Blackwell Evans was chosen, and to serve under him were Cornelia Ayre as vice-president, Peggy Hassel as secretary, and Saul Luria as treasurer. In March nineteen more students were invited to join the society and were tapped at an assembly program presented by the old members. Thus the Honor Society, refreshed with new blood and retaining the richness of the old, settled down to another term of devotion to its ideals—Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Quill and Scroll Society

Carroll Alley	President
Miriam Clark	Vice-President
Ann Hasker	Secretary and Treasurer
Ann Wilson	Scrap Book Keeper
James Lumpkin	Reporter

THROUGH the John Marshall Chapter of Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, we strive to uphold the principles upon which the order is founded. Truth, Initiative, Opportunity, Leadership, Cultural Attainment, Friendship, and Loyalty are our guiding lights leading us to develop finer personalities.

The members of Quill and Scroll are the gifted and industrious persons from the publication staffs in John Marshall and must be in the upper third in their class standing.

September found only one member left from the previous year. Gradually twelve persons from The Monocle and The Record qualified, and on December 8 were initiated before the sophomore assembly.

To entertain alumni members, new ones held a Christmas party on the Thursday before the holidays. Faculty members were guests, too.

Five of the thirteen initiates were still in John Marshall after February graduation. In March twelve more took the pledge to the society. Later in the term, a few more joined in an initiation in the garden at the Poe Shrine. At that time the faculty sponsor entertained with a tea after the group had posed for the society picture for THE MARSHALLITE.

Individual members took part in many school activities. They edited The Record, The Monocle, and THE MARSHALLITE. Four of the boys held high rank in the corps of cadets. Some members took part in the operetta, a number served on the Student Association, and a few worked in the office. They contributed to the Red Cross and to the Mile of Dimes, and of course they bought war bonds and stamps.

Drama Class, First Term

THE Class of Drama is the outgrowth of a dramatic organization of the same name, formerly an extra-curricular activity organized and sponsored by Mrs. Charlotte Wheeler De Courcy, who procured the present stage, curtains, and equipment in the regular class room, 209. Through the efforts of Miss Eva Branch and Mrs. De Courcy, it became a regular class in 1938, a part of the public speaking course. Students eligible for this course are those who make good marks on public speaking and desire a course in dramatics. The students act, direct, and put on plays, doing all the work themselves with help and advice from the teacher. During the term each student takes part in one sketch from a three-act play and three one-act plays. He works on committees, such as library, costume, lights, make-up, props, bulletin board, and set. He makes a notebook containing an outline of the history of drama and all notes pertaining to committee work, a record of plays produced, drawings of sets and programs, and pictures of period costumes. The student plans his own sets, borrows or creates the properties he uses, and learns to co-operate with the whole class. He meets, sees, and produces good plays. He practices control of body and voice, and the more work he does, the more fun he has.

Drama Class, Second Term

THE Drama Class began its term with a series of scenes from The Importance of Being Earnest. Since various people played the same characters in different scenes, the actors had the experience of comparing interpretations. Scenes from The Bat, Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire, The Truth Game, Victoria Regina, and Pride and Prejudice were also presented, as both drama classes were unusually large. The second and third recitation periods were made up of one-act plays, including The Valiant, Holding a Husband, Letters, The Devil on Stilts, When the Whirlwind Blows, Overtones, Afterwards, The Wonder Hat, Never Too Old, Two Crooks and a Lady, Fluerette and Co., The Mayor and the Manicure, Green Eyes from Romany, Wisdom Teeth, The Stranger, They're None of Them Perfect, etc.

From fantasy to tragedy, drama in nearly all its forms was illustrated in this series. Customs, manners and costumes of the last three centuries and the Land of Make-Believe were studied. Coiffures presented the greatest difficulty, due to inexperience.

For the past two terms both Miss Keene's and Miss Peple's classes have made an effort to do one or two one-act plays for the wounded soldiers at the base hospitals. The casts who had the good fortune to play before the boys had a most appreciative audience each time and were invited to return, which we shall do gladly at the first opportunity.

Sans Souci Club

Peggy Hassel	President
Teddy Katz	Vice-President
Lucille Herring	Secretary
Leon Bayne	Treasurer

ANOTHER term of fun and pleasure has passed for Le Cercle Francais, Sans Souci. Throughout the year, we were entertained by plays, skits, puzzles, and games.

Highlighting the events of the club was the annual French and Spanish Banquet held March 1 at Ewart's Cafeteria. Carroll Alley was master of ceremonies, and Madame Annette Benaceraf told of her experiences in France. Betty Ann Whitworth, accompanied by Betty Bradbury, sang L'Amour, Toujours L'Amour.

In addition to the banquet, the club sponsored an assembly program, Joan D'Arc, and a movie, Katia, at the Capitol Theater. There was also given in the assembly a movie, Road to Paris.

With the hope that France will again take her place among the great nations of the world and that there may soon be eternal peace throughout the world, we, the members of Le Cercle Francais, leave the club to the other loyal Marshallites. Au revoir! A bientot.

SALUDOS, amigos! This has been one of the most successful years for your spanish Club. We have become charter members of the Student Pan-American League and have learned many interesting and worth-while facts about our South American neighbors from the use of the study kit.

Our members were afforded the opportunity of practicing their knowledge of spoken Spanish on several occasions. What fun we had during the visit of Senora de Velarde!

Probably the most important event of the year was the Modern Language Banquet held on March 1 at Ewart's Cafeteria in the Monticello Room. This banquet was given in conjunction with the French Club of John Marshall. Dr. Francis Ghigo's talk on the paseos of Mexico was very entertaining. And how proud we were of our president's excellent delivery of her welcoming address!

During Pan-American Week the club was fortunate in being able to see two Spanish films. Carmen la de Triana was shown at the Capitol Theatre on April 14 and Miss Holt brought us an educational film on Mexico.

In addition to these cultural and educational events, we enjoyed numerous social activities, among which were several picnics, a Christmas party and a Valentine party.

The John Marshall Orchestra

THE John Marshall Orchestra takes part in many activities, such as the annual Music Festival, and String Clinic. They also play for the school's annual operetta.

On March 15 and 16 of this year, the orchestra played for Victor Herbert's The Red Mill, an operetta put on by the pupils of the school.

The strings in the orchestra had an active part in the Second Annual String Clinic, which was held in Richmond on the 13th, 14th, and 15th of April. Next year the strings will have another opportunity to take part in this annual event.

On May 10, the John Marshall Orchestra combined with the Thomas Jefferson Orchestra played for the Annual Music Festival, which was held at the Mosque. They played Finale from Fifth Symphony, by Beethoven, and Waltz of The Flowers, from the Nutcracker Suite, by Tschaikowsky.

The Library Staff

THE Library Staff, although smaller this year than last, has served efficiently the increasing number of readers in our school. To serve as a library assistant, each person must measure up to definite standards of scholarship, reliability, and perseverance, and must meet these standards at all times in order to remain on the staff.

Duties are varied, such as checking permits at the door, changing books, slipping books, collecting fines, and shelving books. These duties have to be done all during the day, at every period, at recess, and before and after school. The students of the Library Staff are a valuable asset in getting this done. There is a certain pleasure derived from the companionship of books. This the Library Staff enjoys. All assistants feel that they have learned a good deal about books and library techniques this year.

Second Row: Legge, Alcock, Peace
First Row: Mancino, Jordan, Jennings, Sherwood

THE "Office Force" are student assistants to Mrs. Cowardin, Miss Henson, and Mr. Harwood. They fix morning reports, file various kinds of cards, type, run errands, assort mail, check monthly reports, and register, assort, and deliver defense stamps and bonds. The pupils on the "Office Force" are required to pass on every subject. They work in the office during a study period. It sounds like a lot of work, but the "Office Force" seems to enjoy it.

THE John Marshall Forum Club was organized in September of 1939, for the purpose of discussing international and civic affairs.

During the past year the club has discussed numerous subjects, including race relations, background for wars, and, with the co-operation of the cadets, held a panel discussion on Compulsory Military Service in the Cadet Assembly, which was later broadcast on the R. P. S. Spotlight.

THE MONOCLE

Yook, Hunt, Barfoot, Wilson

Sookie! →

UNDER the direction of the adviser, Miss Charles Anthony, the Monocle staff endeavored to serve faithfully its country, school, and community.

During this school year there were two War Loan drives. Through the Monocle the students were urged to reach and surpass the school quota and to obtain a Schools-at-War flag. Each time stories and editorials appeared in the school newspaper stressing the importance of the success of the drives.

Community projects such as the Red Cross and the Community Fund drives as well as the Tuberculosis Campaign and the Mile of Dimes were publicized in the paper.

The staff devotes a special two-column feature, "Listen Editor," on page 2, to letters from servicemen. On that page also is the "Spectroscope" which relates the latest world news. The alumni service column gives much information about our fighting men. The Monocle is sent free to former John Marshall boys in service; in this way they can keep informed of the whereabouts of their old school friends.

Not only does the Monocle honor the boys fighting, but particularly the ones who have fought. The service flag honor roll first appeared in 1942 and has grown to one hundred and twenty names of those who have died for their country. For the Armistice Day issue an extra page was devoted to the boys who have paid the supreme sacrifice.

In April the staff grieved as they paid tribute to the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

School activities receive a great deal of publicity, of course, because that is the purpose of the paper. All important events in the school are publicized before they happen, and there is a write-up about them after they take place.

It has been our desire to help promote interest in the educational projects of the school. The Gallup polls brought out the ideas of the pupils on educational and national affairs. Interviews with Mr. Jesse Binford, city school superintendent, and the other officials helped give an idea of how the educational departments are working for the students.

Now with many happy memories we leave our Monocle to a new staff and hope they will keep our standards high. This year we have found much joy in working together for the good of our paper and school. Bettye Barfoot, Florine Hunt, Carroll Alley, and James Lumpkin were co-editors for the fall and spring terms, respectively. May Lee Yook, Ann Wilson, Shirley Lett, and Shirley McGee were the feature editors. Miriam Clark and Dan Kerns were news editors. George Bryan did the artistic work, and Ann Wilson was managing editor in the spring term. Betty Curtis, Lucille Herring, and Bayard Jeter took care of the business affairs. Alyce Finke wrote the fashions; Virginia MacAllister gave bits of news about the students in her "Buzzing," and Jo Lyle kept the school posted on sales of war stamps; others on the staff assisted.

THE RECORD

WITH the current issue The Record ends its thirty-fifth year. Through the years the magazine has won many honors and distinctions and in the 1943-1944 session gained the coveted title awarded by the National Scholastic Press Association of "All-American."

This year the staff has had its share of anxiety and glory. Our main trouble has been the fact that tempus fugit—and we have no cure for that! Taking home piles of manuscripts to be edited leaves the editors with bags under half-closed eyes.

The language editor's tongue is hanging out after racing over the school, gathering material. While this goes merrily on, our artists, being temperamentalists, walk around in dreams of out-of-this-worldness; and, at the last minute, when everyone has given up all hope of having illustrations, they come forward with lovely drawings. The crowning event occurs when the printer is given must government work and lays aside The Record for two weeks, finally printing it in the middle of tests.

Our glory and honor have come with the enthusiasm with which students have received The

C. Allen, Randlett Jennings, K. Allen

Record and the very favorable and flattering criticism accorded us for each issue by the National Press Association service.

In brief, life with The Record fits O. Henry's famous definition: "Life is a series of smiles, sighs, sobs, and sniffles—with the sniffles predominating." It's made up of aches and ecstacies. The aches do not linger, thanks to our excellent forgetteries; the ecstacies we shall never forget. Among the ecstacies we think of—at random: Those quaintly compelling Cherry stories by Norma Edwards, who graciously created one for every issue; the Frawg Level tales of Winfrey Wade; and, more lately, the exquisitely lovely, haunting rhythms of Bettie Guthrie's verse, especially "Lady Rain;" George Bryan's drawings, and Shirley Roberts, our blond typist, working at the window on an afternoon in May!

Finally, the moving finger must accord supreme credit to Co-editors Hasker, particularly during the second semester, and Pendleton, in the first semester. They displayed not only editorial ability of a high order, but were able also to trip the light fantastic in social whirls, to put on a memorable program almost at a moment's notice for Poe's anniversary in the assembly. Our ultimate big moment was The Record's appearance on the R. P. S. (WRVA) Spotlight, May 29, 1945.

THE MARSHALLITE

Business Manager Nuckols at the engraver's

THE first meeting of THE MARSHALLITE Staff was called in order to give the staff an idea of the general work of the annual. At that time, we became acquainted with the expected duties and pleasures of the annual staff. We also learned to know Miss Wilhelmina Wright, our adviser. Having served the annual for some years, she knows the work thoroughly.

THE MARSHALLITE Staff started its task early by obtaining subscriptions. From the number of subscriptions, we were able to determine the required number of covers and other materials which we would need for this issue.

The senior names were listed alphabetically, and posted according to the days they were to have their pictures taken. Then we began working on the rough dummy by setting aside the approximate number of pages necessary for each section. These pages were numbered and cut, numbers were assigned them for future use. Meanwhile, the business staff was particularly busy securing advertisements. Finding out the date of various activities and notifying the photographer was another job for the staff. One of us would accompany him to tell him just what shots we wanted. The photographer was always on hand at the most opportune times to catch the members of John Marshall unawares. We always enjoyed helping him carry his equipment and giving our valuable suggestions. However, this was particularly desirable, during class time, when we got pictures of the different classe offered here. The pictures were sent to the engraver where they were sorted and a plan for each page was made, engraver and staff working jointly. Work was begun on the senior section in January. When the engraver sent us the proofs of the engravings, we had fun pasting them in the dummy which now was becoming very interesting to see.

Katz, Greaver, Burnette, Hicks

The senior write-ups were collected, corrected, arranged alphabetically and typed, by the gracious help of the typing department. Then they were corrected once more and sent to the printers in the month of March. This started an endless struggle of trying to get everything to the printer on time. There, copy was printed along with the cuts. These proof pages also had to be corrected and returned for final print. During our frequent visits to the printers and engravers we usually stopped at a drug store to refresh ourselves, according to Miss Wright's custom. These occasions added a great deal of fun and frolic to our school days.

The Staff is as follows:

MISS WILHELMINA WRIGHT	Faculty Adviser

THE Justices started their football season with only three lettermen back, Captain Patterson, Prout, and Salyers. Although the squad worked hard, they won only one game out of the ten played.

BENEDICTINE, September 22: Benedictine scored two touchdowns. The score was 13-0 until the last two minutes, when John Marshall scored on a pass from Moore to Bucher. Bob Chellis led Benedictine to win, 13-6.

CREWE, September 29: The Justices defeated Crewe, 19-0. Challenor, Gentry and McKinney scored touchdowns; Billy Moore converted the extra point. Prout and Garbett played a good defensive.

SAINT CHRISTOPHER, October 6: John Marshall was trounced, 33-0. The Saints, led by Lynn Chewning and Bill Hawkins, were too good for the Justices. Captain Patterson showed up well for John Marshall.

DANVILLE, October 14: The Justices fought well during the first half of this game, but were defeated by a score of 31-0.

ROANOKE, October 21: In this game played at Roanoke, Captain Patterson was out due to an attack of influenza. Billy Moore's passing and the defensive play of Gerald Bradley and Stuart Garbett were outstanding for the Justices, who were defeated, 40-14.

GRANBY, October 28: The Justices against Granby put up no battle at all, the score being 50-0. No one of the team was outstanding.

HOPEWELL, November 3: John Marshall again took a licking, 20-7. The Justices scored on a pass from Moore to Gathright. Moore converted. Ed Lindsey and "Pat" Patterson played a good defensive.

ALEXANDRIA, November 11: At Alexandria, the Justices were beaten, 12-6. Salyers scored for John Marshall, who should have won, had they taken advantage of their opportunities.

Thomas Jefferson, November 18: Playing against their city rivals, the Justices played a fine defensive game. Frank Owens, the right tackle for John Marshall, played outstandingly. Mills scored for Teejay and Butler converted, thereby giving them the game, 7-0.

Petersburg, November 30: The Wave was led by Buck Kitchen, all-state back, to win the game 35-0. Owens continued to play a fine defensive game.

Salyers

Gathright

THERE were four lettermen back and a goodly number of aspirants. The lettermen were Salyers, who was Captain, Mallory, Gathright, and Garbett.

January 9, the first game of the season was played against Benedictine, whom the Justices defeated, 45-27. The Justices were led by Gathright with 19 points. Mallory was good on defense, and incidentally chalked up 8 points.

The next night, John Marshall traveled to Petersburg where they took the second game in a row, 37-15. Salyers and Gathright led Jayem with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

January 12 saw the Justices suffer their first defeat, losing to Saint Christopher, 42-21; Gathright continued to spark the Justices.

In the Hopewell game, the Justices were led by Salyers and Gathright who rung up 16 points apiece, and won by a score of 45-18.

Playing Maury High in Norfolk, John Marshall was defeated, 44-34. Gathright and Salyers again set the pace for the Blue and White team.

The Comets of Granby High, Norfolk, defeated Jayem 30-18. Mallory and Gathright were our outstanding men in this game.

The Justices were no match for their city, rivals, the Presidents of Thomas Jefferson. There were no individual standouts in this game. The team as a whole played well, losing 45-20.

Maury came here to defeat the Justices the second time this season by the score of 45-21. In this game the Marshallites were minus the services of Gathright.

In one of the biggest upsets of the year, John Marshall defeated Granby 31-30. All the Justices looked in this game.

Coming back with revenge, Benedictine upset the Justices to the tune of 28-26 in an overtime battle. Mallory and Gathright played outstanding ball.

On February 4, John Marshall defeated the Camp Lee Quartermasters, 42-31. Gathright and Mallory played their usual splendid brand of ball.

At Roanoke, the Justices lost another overtime battle, this time by the score of 40-39. Garbett and Gathright starred for John Marshall.

The Crimson Wave avenged an earlier defeat by winning from the Justices, 29-22. Salyers and Mallory showed up well.

John Marshall went to Hopewell where they beat the Blue Devils, 39-26. Garbett collected 13 points.

February 20, the Justices battled the Saints on even terms for three quarters, and then weakened, losing 45-30.

In the last game of the year, John Marshall lost to Thomas Jefferson, 51-31. The Presidents proved to be just too tough for the Justices. Mallory was high scorer for Jayem, with 10 points.

The Justices won 6 of their 17 games of the season. They were third in city standings and second in the central district.

On FEBRUARY 14, the trackmen reported to the coach and received their equipment. Until March 1 the men took hard exercises and did a lot of running to get into condition. Claude Patterson was the only letterman returning for duty.

The schedule was as follows:

April 1—Arlington	At Home
April 15—Granby	At Norfolk
April 22—Tidewater Meet	Williamsburg
April 26—Thomas Jefferson	At Home
April 29—Woodberry	There
May 6—Maury	At Home
May 13—State Meet	U. of Va.

The first opponents, Washington Lee School of Arlington, had won the indoor track meet at Charlottesville, February 26. Our men knew they had a hard team to oppose. The Generals of Washington Lee crushed the Justices, 95-22, taking eleven each of first and second places and seven thirds, while the Justices had only two each of firsts and seconds and five thirds. Ballinger won first in the 100-yard dash and Wingo first in the javelin throw. The seconds went to Patterson in the shot put and Mitterer, Pierce, and Davis, who tied in the high jump. For the visitors, Berber and Thompson stood out in the weights, and Brown, Brisbane, Buhler, and Cleland took firsts in the running events.

The Justices defeated Granby of Norfolk, 73-44, in the second meet. Both Ballinger and Mitterer brought in a pair of firsts, Ballinger in the 100 and 220 dashes, and Mitterer in the high and low hurdles. Granby led at the end of the field events, but the Justices took all three places in the 100 yard dash and the high hurdles. From then on the Justices slowly moved ahead.

John Marshall traveled to Williamsburg to take fifth place in the Tidewater meet. Newport News was first, Maury second, Thomas Jefferson third, Granby fourth, Oceana sixth, and Hampton seventh.

Our town rivals, Thomas Jefferson next gave us a good licking to the tune of 73-49. Patterson won first in the discus, Ballinger in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and Mitterer the 220 yard low hurdles. John Stoneburner was high point man for Teejay, taking first in the broad jump, high jump, and pole vault.

Woodberry Forest won over the Justices, 80-37. The Justices took all three places in the 100 yard dash and javelin throw, and first in the mile and shot put. Ballinger, Trainum, Patterson, and Stuart were our main scorers.

Continuing their losing streak, the Justices were beaten by Maury, 77½-49½. A strong wind was blowing and slowed up the whole meet somewhat, but the thriller of the afternoon came when Ballinger outran

Ten John Marshall trackmen received monograms for their efforts during the season. Joe Murray, their able manager, also was awarded a letter. The high scorer for the year was Ballinger, with 63½ points, while Patterson, Wingo, Mitterer, Trainum, and Stuart followed in this succession.

"WHEW! Am I tired and out of breath!"

"Gosh, but I'm hot! It certainly was a tough game. Now I see why Coach McKinney was so anxious for us to keep training."

Thus ran the comments of the John Marshall hockey players after their first game. During this game the girls saw how badly they needed practice. Now they could understand why Miss Helen McKinney, their coach, had drilled them over and over again on the same thing.

The first game was not a very pleasant one. R. P. I. quickly grabbed the lead in the first half and they held the J. M. lassies scoreless during the entire game. Captain Ann Parrish and Connie Krouse, fullbacks, were mainstays of the team. The final score was 4-0 in favor of R. P. I.

The Marshallites' second game was played against Collegiate. Our girls were playing on "foreign ground" and were further handicapped by the absence of Dolores Kipps, the center forward. Collegiate made 3 goals in the first half while the Justices were held scoreless. During the second half, however, Jayem turned the tables and allowed only one point to Collegiate. The final score was 4-0, in favor of Collegiate.

Cotten stiffens defense

On October 25 our second team players met Collegiate at Hotchkiss Field. Playing an excellent game from the beginning, John Marshall held the visitors scoreless during the entire game, but were unable to get across a goal themselves.

The first game in November was played against Petersburg, a formidable foe. Both teams seemed to be evenly matched. Captain Ann Parrish and Connie Krouse proved to be the most valuable players on the Big Blue Team. Toward the end of the last half the visitors broke through the Justices' defense and scored 3 points. Davis, center forward for Petersburg, scored 2 more later. The final score was 5-0, in favor of the opposing team.

On November 6, at Hotchkiss Field, the Justices tried their luck against St. Catherine's. Iris Verelle was the outstanding player for the game. Dolores Kipps, better known as "Buddy," also played excellently. At the end of the first half the score was 2-0, St. Catherine's favor. Later Ward made 2 more points, making the final score 4-0, St. Catherine's being the victor.

Krouse, Hendley

Kipps, Marshall

Two days later our second team played St. Catherine's. They didn't fare as well as our first team did. During the first half, the Saints made 6 points. Our lassies seemed unable to keep them back. The score at the end of the game was 12-0, in favor of St. Catherine's.

On November 14, the Big Blue Team met its greatest rival—Thomas Jefferson. Elizabeth Brauer, right inner for Teejay, was the first to score. Following her was Singleton, also of Thomas Jefferson. Due mainly to the efforts of Captain Ann Parrish and Connie Krouse, the Jeffs did not score again during the first half. Coming back after the half, our lassies tried to score but the Jeffersonians' defense proved to be much too strong. The final score was 2-0, in favor of Teejay.

That same week our second team opposed the Teejay reserves, Madelyn Yancey, center forward for Jayem, made the first goal. A. White, of Thomas Jefferson, countered with one point. At the end of the first half the score was tied, 1-1. The Jeffersonians' right wing was the first to score in the second half. Rose Boyajian, right inner, followed with a goal for the Big Blue Team. Just before the final whistle A. White made another goal. Thomas Jefferson won, 3-2.

On November 22, John Marshall varsity played the Blue and Red of Westhampton. Immediately the Westhampton girls grabbed the lead. In vain the Justices tried to hold them back. Playing better than they ever had before, the Jayem girls allowed Westhampton only two points in the second half. The final score was 7-0, in favor of the Blue and Red.

Although not very successful this season, we are looking forward to better results next year. All of our varsity players will be returning except Captain Ann Parrish, Connie Krouse, and Marguerite Cotten.

BASKETBALL

HULL

JOHN MARSHALL'S first game was with Westhampton College. It was mostly to give our girls experience. Before the game, Madelyn Yancey, Jayem center forward, was elected first team Captain. Maureen Journey and Jean Pitts went in as forwards. Audrey Lynn, Shirley Seay and Joy Hull were guards.

Pluckily our lassies played against overwhelming odds. Sparked by Bristow, the Westhampton girls had amassed 33 points by the half. Our lassies were held to only 4. Coming back with an entirely new team after the first half, the Blue and Red wreaked havoc on our guards—10 points were made in quick succession by Bristow with Henley and Edwardsen doing their part. The final score was 60-9, the Blue and Red of Westhampton being the victor.

That same week the second team of John Marshall played the Westhampton Bee's. Fighting a losing battle from the beginning, the lassies were really hard pressed in the last quarters of the game. The Marshallites lost, 53-9.

On January 25, the Varsity girls played St. Patrick's team. Two other John Marshall girls, Wanda Bruce and Doris Sharpe, came into the limelight this game, having proved themselves capable of "holding their own" in practice. Mary Donner, St. Patrick's Captain, was easily the star of the game. Coming back after the first half, the Marshallites worked their hardest to even the score, but Mary Donner slipped past our feeble defense and made two goals in rapid succession. O'Grady followed with two more goals, while the Justices were held to only one goal. St. Patrick's won, 15-7.

Against St. Catherine's on February 13, our girls played an excellent game. With two of our varsity players sick, we were severely handicapped. Maureen Journey was first to score for the Blue and White. Captain Madelyn Yancey soon helped by scoring 4 points. Then St. Catherine's team broke through our defense and scored several goals. At the half the score was 18-9, favor of St. Catherine's.

The outstanding player was Judy Noble, center guard for St. Catherine's. Chapman of St. Catherine's was high scorer, with 12 points. St. Catherine's won, 25-13.

Our team played St. Patrick's the second time, February 18. The final score was 21-7, in favor of the opposing team.

Next our varsity played Manchester. The score at the first quarter was 5-4, John Marshall's favor. At end of the half, the score was 11-7, our team's favor. The score at the third quarter was tied 13-13. Final score was 19-18, Manchester's favor. Playing the Richmond Basketball Club on the 21st, our hopes were indeed slim. They had played varsity ball through high school and college. Some were now coaches of high school and college teams. Nevertheless, we hoped for a good time. Final score was 53-5, the Club being the victor

On February 26, the sophomore members of our team went to East End Junior High for a game there. The final score was 11-8, John Marshall's favor.

On February 27, in the Wythe Gym, the first and second teams of John Marshall played the first and second teams, respectively, of Varina. The score at the half (for the first teams) was 12-10, Varina's favor. Both teams were at their best during the third quarter. Final score was 26-15 in favor of Varina. When the Blue and White second team began playing they were determined to avenge the defeat of the varsity. However, the best they could do was 15-13, favor of Varina.

Our first game in March was with James Monroe High School of Fredericksburg. Miss McKinney, our coach, had once taught there. She threatened to whip the whole team unless they won! The score at the half was 3-2, Jayem's favor. After the half, the Justices seemed to be playing charmed ball. The score at the end of the third quarter was 8-4, John Marshall's favor. The final score was 11-8, our favor.

On March 6, John Marshall met her long standing rival, Thomas Jefferson. The score at the end of the first quarter was 12-2, Jefferson's favor. Rallying under Captain Yancey, the Justices made a field goal and two foul goals in rapid succession. Elizabeth Brauer made two points for the Red and White. Our guards then shifted to zone defense and limited T. J. to only two points during second quarter. At the half the score was 14-7 in favor of Thomas Jefferson. Judy Harvie started the third quarter off with three field goals. Elizabeth Brauer made four more points. Maureen Journey desperately made a goal, with Verelle adding four points to our score. Brauer broke into our zone defense and made two goals. Judy Harvie made two more. Madelyn Yancey, trying in vain to encourage her teammates, made a goal for John Marshall. Elizabeth Brauer made four more points for T. J. The Jeffersonians won, 38-15.

All high school teams were invited to a Play Day, March 8. From the contestants a first and second team were to be picked as the basketball queens of 1944-45. Shirley Seay and June Woodcock, of our second team, were selected for the All-City reserve team.

The Mark of a Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

Life Insurance for Safety . . and Security

A successful savings plan must provide a regular amount to be saved on a regular day for a specific purpose.

Life Insurance is the best plan yet devised to teach us the habit of saving and to keep us faithful to that habit. It is not an expense but a savings. It should be the first factor in everyone's program—the last to let go.

Life Insurance creates an estate immediately, which might otherwise never be acquired. Make sure of your estate by the purchase of life insurance while you are young.

VIRGINIA ENGRAVING COMPANY

101 GOVERNOR STREET, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

A College Annual requires the undivided interest and attention of Editor, Business Manager and Publisher if it is to present that much desired appearance of Character.

❡ For that reason, Everett Waddey Company handles only a limited number of annuals each year—a limited number so as to permit proper service.

❡ Everett Waddey Company of Richmond, Virginia, alone was responsible to the Staff of The Marshallite for 1945 for the correct manufacture of The Marshallite.

Best of luck in the coming year.
